

ROMAN HOUSE

Roman House is a 4 bed detached house that accommodates young people between the ages of 8 and 17 years old with Learning Disabilities including underlying Mental Health needs, complex health needs, Autism and associated challenging behaviours.

Roman House's experienced staff team aims to offer childcare that is nurturing, holistic and which offers stimulating life opportunities and reinforces healthy emotional and social development.

Roman House wishes to maintain the principle of good parenting, delivering care that values rights, individual identity and cultural diversity by ensuring the staff team work within the guidelines and the staff team receive appropriate training to achieve this.

SPECIALIST EXPERTISE

Full 24-hour one to one support for all young people, this can also be increased to two to one support if this is deemed to be best practice at the initial assessment.

Roman House is committed to ensuring that every young person living in the home has a voice and should be heard, whatever challenges they face, and promoting a sense of empowerment for young people by encouraging them to take ownership of their home by becoming more involved in resident meetings and consultation procedures.

Full time education can be provided with a personalised education package specific to individual needs. Staff from Roman House accompany young people at Regard Learning Education Centre and local colleges where necessary to fully support them and offer the consistent support and boundaries which they need to develop.

Post 16 pupils are encouraged and supported to attend local colleges and work experience placements.

As young people reach 16 years of age or sooner if appropriate, the home offers a semi-independence programme enabling the young people to further develop the skills they need for later life. This enables a smooth transition into supported living which is graduated by consistent staff working with the supported living staff until a full withdrawal by the Roman House staff.

Roman House provides

- The highest levels of 24-hour support
- Experienced staff
- Support to develop independent living skills
- A welcoming, safe and comfortable environment
